

Canadian Families and Corrections Network Scholarship Information

Canadian Families and Corrections Network (CFCN) focuses on families, children, and friends who have someone they care about in jail. Our mission is to build stronger and safer communities by assisting families affected by criminal behavior, incarceration, and reintegration. The CFCN Scholarship is open to all Canadian students graduating high school, or completing high school equivalency, and attending post-secondary education. They must have an incarcerated parent or caregiver in a Federal or Provincial Correctional Institution, now or in the past.

To Apply:

The student must complete the CFCN Application form and send it to the CFCN Scholarship Fund Application Committee at board@cfcn-rcafd.org

Guidelines for the CFCN Scholarship:

1. Must be completing high school, or high school equivalency, and registered for a post secondary program.
2. Must have now, or previously have had, an incarcerated parent or caregiver.
3. Must complete the Scholarship Application Form.
4. Must submit a Letter of Support from a parent, caregiver, or community agency. This must be submitted with the Scholarship Application Form.
5. Must submit Proof of Enrollment in a post-secondary school / program.
6. Incomplete applications or applications missing attachments will not be considered.

Amount:

This scholarship will be for a maximum of $250.00.

Deadline:

Anyone applying for the Scholarship can do so any time during the year. The scholarship is awarded once per year, in either August or December.
